CPA Membership

CPA Member

Fee: Held CPA license 3 years or less – $255
Held CPA license more than 3 years – $340

Any person who is a certified public accountant (CPA) of Pennsylvania, another state or political subdivision of the U.S., or the equivalent of a CPA of a foreign country or its political subdivision.

CPA Educator

Fee: $135

Any person who is a certified public accountant (CPA) of Pennsylvania, another state or political subdivision of the U.S., or the equivalent of a CPA of a foreign country or its political subdivision, and is engaged in accounting education on a full-time basis at an accredited college or university.

Nonresident CPA

Fee: $215

A certified public accountant (CPA) of Pennsylvania who neither resides nor is employed in Pennsylvania.

Membership year runs May 1-April 30.

Dues rates are subject to change after membership year end, April 30.

Applications: All applications for membership are reviewed by PICPA staff, who shall determine the eligibility of the applicant for membership. Each application for membership shall be accompanied by a remittance of the appropriate dues for the applicable class of membership, which shall (a) be returned in the event of the rejection of the applicant, or (b) become payment of the applicant's dues in the event of the acceptance of the applicant to membership for the period of time designated within the applicant's acceptance letter.

Dues: Each member's dues shall be determined on the basis of his or her status as of May 1 of each year. For members whose status may fall in more than one membership type, the rate of dues shall be the one applicable to his or her principal activity. A portion of your annual membership dues is allocated to your Pennsylvania CPA Journal subscription.

Dues are not deductible as a charitable contribution but may be deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense. Any portion of your dues that can be attributed to activities defined by the Internal Revenue Service as "lobbying expenses," are not deductible. PICPA has determined that 6% of your dues are not deductible for income tax purposes.

Half year proration applies for new applications submitted between Nov. 1 and Jan. 31 (except Accounting Affiliates and Student Affiliates).
